

House Resolution No. 2501

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize Greenwood Laboratory School in Springfield, Missouri, which has conducted its centennial year celebration, culminating with a final event on May 3, 2008; and

Whereas, Greenwood Laboratory School is a program in the Missouri State University College of Education, and unlike the rest of the campus it consists of students in grades K-12; and

Whereas, Greenwood Laboratory School provides an opportunity for Missouri State University students and faculty to engage in clinical field experiences, experimentation, innovation, research, sharing of information, and staff development; and

Whereas, Greenwood Laboratory School believes that students should be given the opportunity to develop a wide variety of knowledge and skills, think critically, set challenging goals, respect diversity, adopt an attitude of social responsibility, and to become lifelong learners; and

Whereas, accredited by the North Central Association of Schools, Greenwood Laboratory School boasts an impressive enrollment of 365 students who are taught by Master Teachers who have an average of twenty years of successful teaching experience, and certified instructors in core and specialty areas; and

Whereas, known for its academic proficiency, Greenwood Laboratory School continues to provide educational opportunities that produce individuals who are competent, confident, creative, caring, and lifetime learners:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Greenwood Laboratory School upon this very special anniversary event; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Greenwood Laboratory School.
